The first goal of treating cleft lip and palate is to maximize the function of the normal appearing infant to ensure growth, development, and a successful transition to adulthood. The second goal is to eliminate or minimize the impairments and functional limitations caused by the cleft. The third goal is to allow the patient to perceive his or her true self and possible role in society. There is a need for a multidisciplinary approach to the treatment and management of cleft lip and palate that begins in the perinatal period. Officers investigate after Hagerstown man threatened to kill relatives CARNEGIE — High crime numbers and high tensions have given the Hagerstown Police Department reason to respond to in-home calls this month. On Oct. 10, officers responded to a report of a man who had threatened to kill his mother-in-law, the woman's husband and stepfather in a domestic dispute. The suspect, who was believed to have been agitated and intoxicated, was taken into custody by the Maryland State Police. On Oct. 20, Hagerstown police responded to a call of someone screaming at a residence in the 700 block of Cobbs Creek Drive. Police were unable to locate the caller, but said that the residence was listed under a different address, according to the call log, and that the unit had been foreclosed on. On Oct. 27, an officer was patrolling the area of Fancher Street when he saw a group of five juveniles standing on the sidewalk. The officer approached the group and was told by a woman that there were six juveniles in the group and that they were hiding in an alley. The officer then contacted another officer and the group of juveniles was placed under arrest. Police returned to the residence on Fancher Street and found five more juveniles hiding in the basement, all of whom were also placed under arrest. On Oct. 30
