The splash screen for PowerDirector 17 features a background image of a cyclist in motion. At the top left is the PowerDirector logo, a blue square with a white play button icon. To its right, the text "PowerDirector 17" is displayed in a large, white, sans-serif font. Below the logo and title, the text "Set the video aspect ratio:" is followed by three radio button options: "16:9" (selected), "4:3", and "9:16". Each radio button is accompanied by a small rectangular preview box. Below these options are five large, light-colored buttons with icons and text: "Timeline Mode" (with a video camera icon), "Storyboard Mode" (with a storyboard icon), "Slideshow Creator" (with a play button icon), "Auto Mode" (with a starburst icon), and "360° Editor" (with a 360-degree rotation icon). At the bottom left, there is a checkbox labeled "Always enter timeline mode". At the bottom center, there is a link: "Explore more software for your Digital Media Lifestyle". At the bottom right is the "CyberLink" logo.
